Dear Sir/Madam

Date: 04-Sep-2019

Application for a Certificate of Lawfulness under Section 191/192 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990

Application No: 19/4070N
Proposal: Certificate of proposed lawful use of conversion of barn to residential dwelling.
Location: LAND ADJACENT TO, Lane Farm, HEATLEY LANE, BROOMHALL
National Grid Ref: 362712.91 347569.87

We have received an application for a certificate of lawfulness under Section 191/192 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended). This is not a planning application and will not be determined on the planning merits of the case rather, the application is a legal determination which seeks clarification that the development/use is lawful in planning terms. Also the existence of any private rights which the applicant may have to carry out the use/development is irrelevant. The application will be determined on the basis of evidence submitted by the applicant and other information available to the Council.

The Council is required to take steps to ascertain the accuracy of the information presented in the case. I am therefore writing to ask if you wish to confirm or refute any of the facts presented in the application. You do not have to reply but should you wish to comment please let me have your written response by 25-Sep-2019 at the latest. This may be sent by letter to the above address or by email to planning@cheshireeast.gov.uk

In making any comments you should bear in mind that your correspondence will be open to public inspection. Also you should limit your response to the facts relevant to the application only. The Council is not able to enter into any exchange of correspondence regarding the application.

The application form, plans and other supporting information are available for inspection on the Council's web site at:

<http://planning.cheshireeast.gov.uk>

Once a decision has been made on this application, the decision will be posted on the planning pages of the website where you will be able to view a copy of the decision notice.

Yours faithfully
